General Rules of Debate

- The decisions of the Chair are final, unless overridden by the Secretariat.
- Only the Secretariat, the Chair, a member of the house recognized by the Chair for a point or motion, or the speaker holding the floor has the right to speak.
- The Chair may extend or reduce debate times, limit the number of presenting sponsors or signatories, and rule any motions dilatory should they upset the flow of debate.
- Except by a decision of the Chair or Secretariat, there will be no suspension of the rules or changes in the order of debate.
- Direct conversation between delegates is prohibited, and must take place through the chair or through note-passing.
- All delegates must adhere to the GECMUN Code of Conduct as identified on the onboarding form for the conference. Should an individual go against any of the terms outlined in the code, disciplinary measures will be taken to ensure the safety and well-being of the rest of the participants of the conference.

Agenda

1. The agenda is the main topic that will be debated inside the Committee;
2. The agenda is set by student officers and the secretariat;
3. A motion to set the agenda will be out of order for single-agenda Committees.

Roll Call

1. The Chair shall start each session by conducting a roll call where delegates may respond either present, or present and voting. Delegates will be called in alphabetical order.
 - a. Present: the delegate is present in the Committee and has the right to abstain during substantive voting procedures
 - b. Present and Voting: the delegate is present in the Committee and does not have the right to abstain during substantive voting procedures
2. The quorum is set to two-thirds of the Committee.
 - a. If a Committee has not met the quorum, the Chair should report back to the secretariat for further instructions.

Opening Speech

1. All delegates are required to present a 90-second speech at the start of the conference.
2. Delegates are encouraged to present their country or character's stance and potential resolutions.

3. Once a delegate has spoken, any time remaining will be yielded back to the Chair.

Speakers' List

1. The Speakers' list serves as the default for the Committee if no points or motions are voiced by delegates. There is no limit on the number of delegates who can be added to the list, but a country may not be added if they are already currently on the list; they may only appear once on the list at any given time.
2. Delegates can be added to the list at any time during a Committee session by notifying the Chair to be added.
3. The default speaking time for a delegate is 90 seconds, but this can be left to the discretion of the delegate who proposes to open the list. Should the entire speaking time not be elapsed by a delegate, they must explicitly yield their time back to the Chair.

Yielding

1. Delegates may yield the remaining time of their speech (from a speakers' list and an authorship speech) in the following ways under the discretion of the Chair:
 - a. Yield the time back to the Chair,
 - b. If there are 30 or more seconds left, yield to Points of Information:
 - i. Delegates shall specify the number of Points of Information, or open up Points of Information to any and all delegates
 - ii. Follow-ups are allowed, but not to the second degree,
 - c. If there are 30 or more seconds left, yield to another delegate:
 - i. Pre-yielding agreements are not required,
 - ii. Yielding to a second degree shall be out of order

Directives

 - Content: the content must include an actionable direction, request, or question that is appropriate and relevant to the current crisis situation

- A denied directive cannot be resubmitted for a reapproval.

Public Directive

- A public directive consists of a main submitter, sponsors, and content.
 - Main Submitter: the primary author is the main submitter of a private directive
 - Sponsors: delegates who support the public directive can be listed as sponsors, given their explicit verbal or written approval
- A public directive must secure at least one-thirds of the quorum for sponsorship to be submitted for approval. A sponsorship should be counted by including the main submitter and sponsors. Directives that do not meet this requirement must be denied automatically.
- A public directive must be within the portfolio power of the submitter, the sponsors, and/or the Committee as a whole.
- A public directive must be submitted to the Director for approval. A motion to introduce a public directive can only be raised after it has been approved by the Director.
- A directive has no effect until it is executed by the Director, which can be in the form of a written or verbal reply or a crisis update.
 - Upon the passing of a public directive, the Director does not reserve the right to dismiss a public directive which the Committee has voted to enact; accordingly, the Director shall incorporate the contents of the public directive into the Committee. Notwithstanding, the Director reserves the full right in determining the precise ways in which the public directive is executed.
- A denied directive cannot be resubmitted for a reapproval.
