

GECMUN XII

Code of Conduct

Last updated on January 26th, 2026

All participants (including Delegates, Chairs, Staff, Press, Secretariats, Advisers, and all other members) must agree and adhere to this Code of Conduct. Additionally, all Chairs, Delegates, and Staff must agree and adhere to the Rules of Procedure for their committee. Any participant who does not comply with any of the rules may be subject to removal from Global Education City Model United Nations XII.

Dress Code

1. All participants must wear general western business attire during all sessions.
2. This rule may be partially altered by the Motion to Suspend the Rules under the discretion of the Chairs and the Secretariat.
3. If, under the decision of the secretariat, a dress code of any participant seems inappropriate, the secretariat reserves the right to deny entrance and participation for the person.

Plagiarism

1. Any and all types of plagiarism are strictly forbidden in GECMUN.
2. Plagiarism applies to both spoken and written works, such as speeches, position papers, resolutions, and amendments.
3. If evidence of plagiarism is found, the Delegates and Chairs may face consequences varying from exemption from award consideration to expulsion from the conference.

Artificial Intelligence

1. Any and all types of Artificial Intelligence usage to produce official documents (amendments, resolutions, position papers) are strictly forbidden in GECMUN.
2. AI usage applies to both spoken and written works, such as speeches, position papers, resolutions, and amendments.
3. If evidence of AI usage is found, the Delegates and Chairs may face consequences varying from exemption from award consideration to expulsion from the conference.
4. Staff members have the right to report any and all instances of misconduct and AI usage to the Secretariat and Chairs.

Pre-written resolution

1. Pre-written resolutions are not in order in GECMUN.
2. If any pre-written resolution (including clauses) is found, the Delegates will be exempted from award consideration.

Leaving the Committee Room

1. When any Delegates wishes to leave the committee room, the Delegates should inform the Chairs and staff.

2. The maximum time allowed for the leave is 20 minutes unless it is an emergency that has been communicated to the Secretariat.
3. Exceeding the maximum allowed time for any other reason may result in consequences determined by the Secretariat.

Language

1. The official language of the Global Education City Model United Nations (GECMUN) is English.
2. No language other than English may be spoken during official sessions.
3. Warnings may be given by the Chairs to Delegates who violate this rule:
 - a. Chairs are to report Delegates who continuously violate the language requirements, and the Delegates may be exempted from award consideration.

Usage of Electronic Devices

1. Delegates may not use electronic devices during official sessions unless:
 - a. Permitted by Chairs or Secretariat,
 - b. The purpose for an unmoderated caucus is to draft resolutions,
 - c. Delegates of Crisis Committees will not be permitted to use electronic devices throughout the official sessions
2. Warnings may be given by the Chairs to Delegates who violate this rule:
 - a. Chairs are to report Delegates who continuously violate this rule to the Secretariat, and the Delegates may be exempted from award consideration.

Sexual Harassment

1. Sexual Harassment in GECMUN follows the definition and guideline provided by the Judicial Penal Code of the Republic of Korea.
2. Any attempt or behavior matching the terminologies and definitions of the Korean law will be considered an act of sexual harassment:
 - a. When such action has been found by or reported to the Secretariat and faculty directors, the perpetrator will immediately be expelled from the conference, along with an official report filed to the school, their parents, and the law enforcement.
3. Staff members reserve the right to proofread any official notes (defined as any notes passed during the time of sessions) passed between Delegates and Chairs. Staff members are obligated to report any instances of Harassment to the Secretariats directly.

Relationships

1. All participants (including Delegates, Chairs, and Secretariats) must retain their official position.
2. No personal relationships should affect the assessments of the Delegates' performances by Chairs, or the stances of Delegates in debate.

Drugs and Alcohol

1. The definition of drugs and alcohols (intoxicating substances) follow the definition provided by the official classification system of the Korean Ministry of Health and Welfare.
2. The consumption of alcohol or unprescribed drugs will be out of order:
 - a. When an unregulated substance has been found, the Secretariat reserves the right to report it to the local law enforcement agencies.
 - b. If any participant is found possessing or drinking alcohol, the participant will be expelled from the conference. An official report will be filed to the school and to their parents. The participant may be limited from participating in future GECMUN-affiliated conferences.
3. Smoking is not permitted during the conference for all participants.
 - a. If any participant is found smoking of any kind (including electronic cigarettes), the participant will be expelled from the conference, with an official report filed to the school and to their parent or guardian.

Health and Safety

1. All participants must follow the local and national health and safety protocols and regulations.
2. If safety is in jeopardy, the director and Secretariat may decide certain committees, sessions, and/or the conference as a whole to switch to a safer environment, such as an online conference.
